Collector Office Jalgaon

E-Lokshahi (IVRS Based System)

In view of citizen centric & transparent administration the District collector & District Magistrate office, Jalgaon had developed an integrated voice response system to provide the primary information & registration of grievances using widely used telephone and mobile.

For this service citizens has to dial (0257)- 2222222 (Seven times 2) to accesses the service. Except the ordinary telephone call charges there is no other charges are laid down for this services.

It is an innovative and embassies project of District Collector Office Jalgaon to have a direct conversation between citizens & administration. Using these project citizens can listen the primary basis information or can registered their grievance by seating at their home. The officer will listen the grievances and record his opinion/answer to the system which the citizen can listen for their home. This is a complete system from registering grievances to reply of grievances to the citizens. This system is fully automated without human intervention so it is made operational 365 x 24 x 7 .

Presently there are 42 types of grievances and 57 types of FAQ's services are provided which can be increased. The officers can access the system through telephone, mobile, website & SMS. The system can be access through internet explorer by www.jalgaon.gov.in/elokshahi/ or <http://59.90.140.87/elokshahi/>.

Important features of system.

- 1) The system is operational 365 x 24 x 7 .
- 2) Citizen can access the service from their home for primary information or registration of grievances.
- 3) For every types of grievances time schedule is given for the officers to reply. If not replied in time the SMS will sent to senior level officer. Such four levels of officers are defined for every type. To improve the revenue services and citizens grievances in rural area.
